Dear Tony:

Many thanks to you and Tom for your excellent "In Your Interest" feature with Jeff Hoyak Friday!

Over 1,200 runners participated in the "Terry Fox Run" for Cancer Research.

This was a wonderful response and I know your story played an important part in this $14,000 success for the American Cancer Society!

All the best,

Dear Kevin:

On behalf of the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness, I'd like to thank you for helping us educate the public about preventable blindness.

As I am sure you are aware, eyesight is precious. Yet most people take it for granted until it is taken away from them or someone they know.

Your professional method of handling the interview helped to put both Linda and I at ease.

Linda will be forwarding a blank tape for dubbing the interview and a PSA for future use. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

If you are ever in downtown Dallas, don't hesitate to visit or meet me for lunch.

DEAR SIR:

I wanted to write a note to you to compliment your staff and Mr. Kevin Howard in particular, for their roll in the presentation entitled "Overuse Syndrome". Mr. Howard asked me to participate in this project and I was pleased with his professionalism and his willingness to allow me the freedom to express my concerns and opinions.

After getting a chance to see the presentation, I was extremely pleased with the quality and scope of the presentation. Please extend my sincerest appreciation to Mr. Howard for his efforts. He is to be congratulated for his efforts. Thank you again,

Respectfully,

Edward P. Mulligan

Dear Ms. Edgell:

During the past several months I have had the pleasure of working with two of your staff members. I appreciate the time and effort Daniel Wolfert and Tom Thompson have given to the Dallas Area Red Cross. The shows they have produced on several Red Cross services have received praise not only from staffers but from volunteers as well. We have even gained new volunteers as a direct result of the programs.

It is always a pleasure to work with both Daniel and Tom because of their professionalism. I always know they will produce quality work. I look forward to our continued working relationship and always appreciate their support.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir or Madam,

On Tuesday July 23 at around 6:00, you aired a show on programs that help high school students get into the work force. The program talked about scholarships and internships with larger corporations with in the urban area. One of the programs was called "100 Fellows". Would you please let me know who I can contact to find out more information about programs such as the one mentioned.

Dear Rochelle:

Thank you very much for your hospitality, and especially for your good humor, during my interview on your program yesterday. I really had a good time. Also, I believe that good information was presented to your audience.

I did want to assure you that I would be very interested in hosting a program dealing with environmental topics of interest to this area. There are so many important and exciting changes taking place in the environment that I believe we could put together a very interesting series.

Topics such as the possible source of the chlordane being found in fish in the Trinity River, the potential hazard of radon gas in our homes, what will we get for our coming $17.00 automobile safety inspection and why is it necessary, what is being done to control chlorofluorocarbons and protect ozone in the upper

Dear Rochelle:

I watch your interesting interviews almost daily.

Don't you think that the following would be a good idea for a segment:

There is a national non-profit organization, which has an office in Dallas, called "Communities and Schools". Their function is to work with children, even down to the grade-school level, to KEEP THEM IN SCHOOL until they graduate from High School.

Perhaps you could contact them, and have a representative tell your viewers about the various methods they employ to keep the kids interested and motivated to complete their high school education.

Thanks for your interest in this matter. The person you could contact is Tish DeMauro, and the phone number in Dallas is 827-0955.

Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,
